Chairman's Report

I am delighted to present our Annual Report and accounts for the year ended 31st March 2014, which gives me the opportunity to reflect on our achievements over the past twelve months.

Last year I highlighted the development of our Justice in a Day education programme which has continued this year with the involvement of Bangor University's School of Psychology. Working with the University team will enable us to develop a toolkit from this year's programme that schools will be able to utilise with our 2015 programme.

Justice in a Day continues to form a vital part of PACTs work and this additional partnership work represents an exciting opportunity to enhance the support the programme gives to schools and young people. I must take this opportunity to thank all of our partners and sponsors, in particular Clwyd Theatr Cymru and North Wales Police, who have been key to making our original vision happen.

In addition to managing the Police Property Act Fund on his behalf, we were delighted to support the Police and Crime Commissioner for North Wales, Winston Roddick CB QC, with the management and development of his pilot participatory budget fund – 'Your Community, Your Choice'.

Using PACTs expertise we administered the process which saw almost 80 community organisations submit applications for funding. Twelve of these were successful following a public internet voting process, and you can find details of these in the Annual Report.

I look forward to developing our working relationship between PACT and the Commissioner's Office over the coming year.

I mentioned the Police Property Act Fund earlier which provides the means with which PACT can support Neighbourhood Policing Teams and community groups with projects that help make north Wales a safer place.

When assessing applications our Trustees are mindful that applicants have taken the current Police and Crime Plan and policing priorities into account when developing their proposal. Trustees are grateful for the professional advice given by senior police officers and the Commissioner's Office in this aspect of their work.

I never cease to be impressed by the level of commitment shown by North Wales Police Community Support Officers and the range of community initiatives they are involved with. This is highlighted by the number of Small Grant and Be A Nice Guy applications we support that help a wide variety of our communities – from reassurance events in Wrexham, to dog-fouling initiatives in Gaerwen, road safety in Prestatyn, and disability issues in Pwllheli – with grants ranging from £50.00 to £250.00 which help PCSOs and their communities.

We were very pleased to have two students from Llandrillo College, Police Studies Foundation Course, join us over a seven week work placement period this year. Fiona Lonsdale and Joe Richards devised and compiled a youth survey on our behalf with a selection of young people in north Wales. Moving forward this will form a major part of our youth engagement strategy in the coming year. Thanks go to both Fiona and Joe for all their hard work.

Chairman's Report

On behalf of the Trustees I would like to thank Celia Jenkins, High Sheriff of Clwyd, and Marian Wyn Jones, High Sheriff of Gwynedd, for their commitment to Crimebeat during their year in office, and for their fund-raising work, which ensures that Crimebeat continues to support our young people.

I must also thank my fellow Trustees for their expertise and guidance and continued support. Without them none of our work would be possible.

Finally, my thanks to Dave Evans, the PACT Project Manager and Administrator. His dedicated and untiring work throughout the year and his support to myself and my fellow Trustees is very much appreciated.

The forthcoming year offers PACT the chance to capitalise on this successful year and continue the development of Justice in a Day, 'Your Community, Your Choice', and some exciting development work in the pipeline with the Welsh Rugby Union/Rygbi Gogledd Cymru.

PACT is now 15 years old and we look forward to the future, supporting communities in North Wales, with confidence and anticipation.

Trustees Annual Report

The Trustees have pleasure in presenting their report and the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2014.

Objectives

The Trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Trust's aims and objectives and in planning future activities and setting the grant making policy for the year. In all activities the Trust seeks to raise the profile of Community Safety and, through the protection of people and property, significantly minimise the fear of crime thereby enhancing quality of life throughout the region. The activities include:

- Promoting crime prevention initiatives.
- Promoting Road Safety as an integral part of life to the people of North Wales through training, education, publicity, and special projects.
- Educating the people of North Wales in all matters relating to drug, alcohol and other substance abuse thereby helping to reduce drug-related crime.

Constitution

The North Wales Police and Community Trust was launched on 14th October 1998. The trust is a registered charity under the Charities Act 1993. The Charity registration number is 1071628.

Governing Documents

The Trust is governed by the Declaration of Trust (Trust Deed), which was formally made on 9th September 1998.

Organisation of the Charity

The Trust is run by the Board of Trustees. In accordance with the Declaration of Trust, the Board of Trustees, when complete, should consist of up to thirteen Trustees representing North Wales Police, the voluntary sector, the business sector, and the High Sheriffs of Clwyd and Gwynedd.

Premises

The administration office of the Trust is carried from offices at:

North Wales Police and Community Trust
Ffordd William Morgan
St Asaph Business Park
St Asaph
Denbighshire
LL17 0HQ

Restrictions of the Trust's Activities

The activities of the Trust are restricted to the objectives as outlined in the Declaration of Trust as approved by the Charities Commissioners. The area that can benefit from the Trust's activities is restricted to North Wales.

Policy on Reserves

The Trustees are aware of the Charity Commissioners requirement in regard to Reserves policy.

The Trustees regularly review the level of reserves held by the Trust, and are satisfied that these are kept at an acceptable level to ensure that the Trust continues to operate effectively.

Independent Examination

In accordance with PACT's original Declaration of Trust the trustees confirm that, as the Trust's annual turnover is less than £500,000 an Independent Examination is required.

Going Back in Time

September 2013 saw PACT celebrate 15 years supporting communities in north Wales.

Initially developed with the active involvement of the then Chief Constable, Michael Argent, and a Board of Trustees drawn from the public, private and voluntary sectors, PACT has played a vital part in supporting the links between local communities and North Wales Police.

From modest beginnings when our first year saw the Trust invest £19,000 in eight community projects, we have subsequently invested almost £1,000,000 across north Wales and have seen many milestones being achieved.

- 1998
- Board of Trustees, Chaired by Chief Constable Michael Argent was set up
 - Original supporters included HSBC Bank, Warwick International, Scottish Power, Anglesey Aluminium, Pilkingtons Optronics, together with our first Patron, Lord Dafydd Ellis-Thomas
 - Our first investment of £2,000 for 'Don't Touch Tell' drug education initiative in local schools

- 2000
- New projects supported include – 'Don't Touch – Tell!', Rhyl Cars, and young people's 'Stay Safe' scheme.

- 2002
- PACT supports the Ringmaster neighbourhood watch communications system, which was later succeeded by the OWL system

- PACT supports the High Sheriffs of Clwyd and Gwynedd with the introduction of their Crimebeat Youth Fund.

- 2003
- Trustees agree to support and incubate the development of the 'Safety Zone' interactive education centre which grew into 'Dangerpoint' and was launched in 2005.

- 2006
- Inaugural Crimebeat awards held at Crown Courts in Mold and Caernarfon

- 2007
- Crimebeat funds and delivers 'Think B4 U Drink' peer-education programme to Conwy and Denbighshire schools

- 2009
- First round of 'Be A Nice Guy' Halloween and bonfire grants made available

- Inaugural Crogen Cadet Challenge held, hosted by Henry Robertson, High Sheriff of Clwyd, and Mrs Sarah Robertson

- 2010
- 'Justice in a Day' pilot programme takes place in Flintshire

- 2012
- Crimebeat celebrates 10th Anniversary with a celebration dinner at Ruthin Castle Hotel.

- Llandudno Youth Club 'Just Say No', and Digatref Ynys Môn 'Bridging the Gap' projects win Crimebeat Awards

- 2014
- 'Justice in a Day' recognised at Daily Post Achievement Wales Awards – Highly Commended; 3,000 young people have now been on the workshops since 2010.

Over the past 15 years PACT has received invaluable support from many sponsors, volunteers and Trustees; two of our founder Trustees are still on the Board – Trefor Jones CBE CVO, and David W. Williams DL our current Chair; we have seen 30 High Sheriffs; six Chairs; five co-ordinators/managers; and three Chief Constables.

Sadly some of them are no longer with us, and we remember them with great affection and gratitude.

Our grants have supported a wide and varied range of projects and community groups, and many hundreds police officers and staff.

None of this would have been possible without the support and commitment of North Wales Police, the former Police Authority, and the current Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner. The Trustees would like to acknowledge the level of support they have each given to PACT since 1998.

Review of Activities - Year Ending 31st March 2013

Police Property Act Fund

PACT Trustees continue to manage the Police Property Act Fund for the Police and Crime Commissioner, carrying on the role first agreed with the previous Police Authority some years ago.

The Police Property Act Fund is made up of monies received by the police from the sale of found property and from property confiscated by order of court and then sold. The main aim of the fund is to support local projects undertaken by voluntary/charitable organisations that solely benefit the communities of north Wales.

2013/14 has seen PACT support many and varied community projects in north Wales with funding in excess of £12,000 from the Police Property Act Fund. Amongst others, these have included the Wrexham Crusaders Wheelchair Rugby Team, Llandudno Junction Good Citizenship Scheme, the Anglesey 'Positive Impact' project, Ogwen Valley Mountain Rescue Team, Hawkesbury Community Centre Graffiti project, and the Plas Madoc Association of Volunteers.

In addition to these major projects the Police Property Act Fund also provides the opportunity to support local communities with grants of up to £250.00 through our Neighbourhood Policing Team Small Grant Fund. Local officers, in the main Police Community Support Officers, can apply for grants to support local organisations with grants that will help to promote community cohesion, and reduce crime and anti-social behaviour.

This year we have made small grants, ranging from £30.00 to £250.00, supporting over 80 local community groups through their PCSO. In addition to supporting those groups with funding it also provides us with the opportunity to support police engagement in our communities helping to make north Wales a safer place.

(A full list of these grants can be found in the appendix to the Annual Report and Accounts)

B.A.N.G. – Be A Nice Guy, Halloween and Bonfire funding

In partnership with the North Wales Fire and Rescue Service, Community Safety Partnerships and local authorities, we have once again been able to promote key messages through the 'Be A Nice Guy' initiative. It has been identified that this approach, along with targeted diversionary activities which engage young people in fun and entertaining events, can be very effective in ensuring that everyone can enjoy themselves safely.

Throughout north Wales in 2013 a variety of Halloween and Bonfire activities, were organised by Local Policing Teams in conjunction with key partners that engaged with young people.

Police Community Support Officers and School Community Police Officers throughout North Wales worked with young people in schools and youth clubs about how their behaviour can affect others and ensuring they keep themselves safe if they go out trick or treating.

At the launch of the 2013 campaign Inspector Julie Sheard from North Wales Police Community Safety Unit said: "Local policing teams across North Wales are working closely with their communities to ensure that those who want to have fun on Halloween can do so without causing upset to others."

Funding from the North Wales Arson Reduction Team, and PACT supported 90 applications from Police Community Support Officers with grants of almost £15,000.

Justice in a Day

Clwyd Theatr Cymru

Justice in a Day is PACT's headline project which we have devised and developed with our partners at Clwyd Theatr Cymru. Now in its fifth year, the programme continues to develop its impact on schools and young people.

This year saw almost 900 young people from schools and educational establishments across our six counties attended our annual Justice in a Day programme.

Following extensive consultation with School Community Police Officers, Magistrates, Criminal Justice Service advisors and Schools, and again aimed at Year 8/9 pupils, the workshops addressed issues including peer-pressure, knife crime, social-media bullying, under-age drinking and steroid abuse - issues which continue to be a cause for concern in schools, or are growing problems.

The young people attending were actively involved each day, supported by Schools Community Police Officers, Police Community Support Officers, Youth Justice Service, H.M. Courts and Magistrates.

The engagement and involvement of the young people is critical to the success of the programme, and it continues to be encouraging to see the positive response we get from them. This was heightened this year by a number of factors:

1. The continued engagement from police officers (SCPOs and PCSOs)
2. Increased engagement from Magistrates - many of whom attended for the whole day. Once again we had a Magistrate for each of the 25 days.
3. The use of a Courtroom for each of the daily workshops

4. The growing understanding that schools have for the programme.
5. Taking the programme to young people from Llandrillo College, Bangor University, Oyster Catcher Cadets and Pupil Referral units.
6. The demand for the programme - this year we had to turn schools away due to being fully booked.
7. Coverage that the programme obtained in local media.

In addition to the involvement of Magistrates we were delighted to welcome the Police and Crime Commissioner to participate in one of the Caernarfon workshops. Mr Roddick spent the day with the young people and acted as our Magistrate for the day.

Many of our sponsors were able to attend during the course of this year's event, including our Wrexham sponsors, North Wales Fire and Rescue Service, and the Scottish Power Foundation. Their support and commitment is vital to the success of the programme and the Trustees would again like to extend their thanks for their continued support and encouragement.

An exciting development for the programme is the work that Bangor University's School of Psychology are currently engaged in. Together with carrying out an evaluation of this year's programme, the School of Psychology will be working with schools and students to develop a toolkit that can be utilised by schools and SCPOs following their attendance at the workshops. We aim to be in a position to trial this toolkit during our 2015 schedule.

We were also joined this year by a number north Wales Assembly Members and Members of Parliament - Mark Isherwood AM, David Hanson MP and Ian Lucas MP who each observed the programme in action.

We were delighted when Justice in a Day won a Highly Commended Community Award at the Daily Post Achievement Wales Awards in November 2013, which was testament to the value that the programme is giving to young people in north Wales.

Planning is currently underway for our 2015 programme which will provisionally take place for a five week period from 23rd February to 27th March 2015.

Crimebeat

One of the highlights of the year continues to be the annual award ceremonies that the High Sheriffs hold in Gwynedd and Clwyd, and this year was no exception.

Amongst the projects recognised at this year's Awards evening were Ysgol Bryn Alyn's anti-bullying peer education initiative in Clwyd, and Cynllun Ieuenctid Pwllheli (C.I.P.) in Gwynedd.

Review of Activities - Year Ending 31st March 2013

The High Sheriff's presented each group with their annual Crimebeat Project of the Year Award at ceremonies held at University Glyndwr, Wrexham and Caernarfon Crown Court.

These were just two of the projects that Crimebeat in Clwyd and Gwynedd has supported over the past year - a year which has seen almost £10,000 being invested in 23 projects by our High Sheriffs.

Many of these projects have been featured on the Crimebeat website which you can find at:

www.crimebeatnorthwales.co.uk

The ceremonies also celebrated the work of Police Community Support Officers in our communities, together with volunteers and community organisations who work tirelessly for the benefit of others.

High Sheriff of Clwyd (2013/14) Mrs Celia Jenkins, and Assistant Chief Constable Simon Shaw with pupils and staff from Ysgol Bryn Alyn, Wrexham

High Sheriff of Gwynedd (2013/14) Mrs Marian Wyn Jones with young people and volunteers from Cynllun Ieuenctid Pwllheli.

'Your Community, Your Choice'

During 2013 PACT was approached by the Police and Crime Commissioner, Mr. Winston Roddick, to develop and administer the Commissioner's Participatory Budget Fund pilot - 'Your Community, Your Choice' - partly funded with money seized by North Wales Police under the Proceeds of Crime Act.

Applications were invited from community organisations in north Wales for projects that supported the Commissioner's Police and Crime Plan by reducing crime and anti-social behaviour.

A total of 73 projects were submitted and later shortlisted to five per county area following a panel discussion involving police, local authority and community representatives.

People from across north Wales were then asked to choose which community projects should benefit from the money seized from criminals in the region through a public online vote. The top two projects in each county were awarded grants of up to £3500 towards reducing crime in their local area.

Commissioner Winston Roddick said: "It is only right that money recovered from those who commit crimes against people in north Wales should go back to benefit local communities. This small grants initiative goes a step further by allowing the public to decide on where and how it should be spent."

North Wales Police Temporary Assistant Chief Constable Simon Shaw said: "I would like to congratulate the groups on their success in securing funding for their initiatives. The worthy recipients cover a wide-range of interesting and exciting projects that will help enhance local communities. What makes this even more worthwhile is that they are being funded by money we've taken from criminals."

Hawkesbury Community Centre Graffiti Project

Graffiti project hailed a success

YOUNG people in Buckley showed off their creative sides last week after taking part in a police graffiti project.

Organised by PCSO Natalie Horgan, the two-day project saw Liverpool-based ZAP Graffiti Arts work with a group of youngsters to help them design and create a mural at Hawkesbury Community Centre.

The event aimed to help reduce crime and anti-social behaviour in the town by encouraging young people to engage with issues in their community.

PCSO Horgan, who secured £1,000 funding for the project from the Police and Community Trust (PACT), said the project went really well and had been supported by many local businesses including Gerrards and Big Fish 2, who provided lunch for those taking part, as well as Rigby's Sweets card and party shop who donated slushies to the group.

PROUD: The group shows off one of its finished murals to councillors, officers, and other dignitaries.

Christchurch School, Rhyl

Christchurch School, Rhyl school is set to bloom with a sea of flowers which should encourage lots of wildlife.

This is the hope of pupils and teachers at Christ Church School who have just been given a £750 grant for a 'School Wildlife Garden'.

The money was awarded from PACT (Police and Community Trust) to help all involved in their efforts to enhance the front garden of the school and create a sustainable wild flower and natural habitat garden and a biodiversity area.

It's the youngsters themselves who are set to undertake this work -starting this spring - but with some assistance from a few advisors and others.

The idea behind re-vamping the garden came via the school's own Eco-Council. The pupils sitting on the council arranged a survey and their fellow students gave the thumbs up to the garden refurbishment.

With not many green open spaces and wildlife friendly habitats in Rhyl West, the new garden and plants should be a great feature not just for wildlife but also for the children who will be able to learn more about habitats, sustainability and the natural environment.

The initiative had backing from number of local officers including local PCSO Julian Tomlinson, PC Les Jones and District Inspector Aled Eynon.

"We are extremely pleased to support the initiative which will give many pupils a hands on project to help them learn about biodiversity," said Dave Evans of PACT. "It should also give the children further opportunities to work as a team outside the class room."

Llandrillo College, Safety Crew 2014

Over 1600 pupils across Conwy and Denbighshire have been given some of the best advice on staying safe and out of harm's way - thanks to the 'Safety Crew'.

Now in its 11th year - the 'Safety Crew' are a group of Performing Arts students from Coleg Llandrillo who tour nearby schools with a specially tailored drama production.

Encouraging pupils to think, put their safety as well as that of their friends first by following the 'safety code' is the main aim of the production.

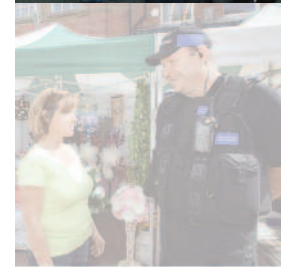

The drama sees superhero 'Safetyman' and his trusted 'Safety Crew' and arch rivals - 'Dr Hazard and the Trickster' take pupils on a whirlwind tour of some of the most current topics.

Issues tackled included stranger danger, anti-social behaviour, bogus callers, criminal damage, internet safety, cycle safety, safety at home and peer pressure.

And, for five days last week (between February 10 and 14), youngsters from 10 schools including Ysgol Llewellyn in Rhyl, Ysgol Porth y Felin, Conwy, Ysgol Maelgwn, Llandudno Junction, Ysgol Esgob Morgan, St Asaph, Ysgol Pendref, Denbigh, Christchurch School, Rhyl, Ysgol Mair, Rhyl, Ysgol Penmorfa Prestatyn, Ysgol Pendorlan, Colwyn Bay, Ysgol Llandrillo yn Rhos, Rhos-on-Sea, got the opportunity to not only see the 16 strong cast but also become members of the Safety Crew themselves and join in with the performance.

One of the first schools to view this year's drama was Ysgol Glanwydden. The drama which was sponsored by Crimebeat, Conwy Road Safety and the Community Safety Partnership, was given the thumbs up by head teacher John Paul Jones.

Review of Activities - Year Ending 31st March 2013

Complementing both the acting and singing, Mr Jones said: "The safety messages are delivered clearly and they are also relevant to the age range of the pupils."

Ifan Hughes, a Crime Reduction Manager with North Wales Police, said: "This is the first year that the Safety Crew has visited schools in Denbighshire. Between both counties 10 schools were visited which resulted over 1,600 children seeing the performance which was tailored towards Key Stage 2."

He added: "The week was fantastic. All the teachers and pupils who saw the performance were very impressed with the messages delivered by the students who we would like to thank for their time and effort in delivering such a professional production."

The High Sheriff of Gwynedd, Marian Wyn Jones, has recently seen how two Crimebeat projects have been supporting young people:

A YOUTH scheme in Pwllheli which encourages informal social learning has gained a £1,000 grant from the High Sheriff's Crimebeat fund.

Cynllun Ieuentid Pwllheli (CIP) has been running in the town for five years and provides a safe, informative and supportive environment for young people. The youth project offers interactive workshop information sessions, homework support and music sessions, not just during the evenings but also at weekends.

It also provides the youngsters of Pwllheli and Pen Llŷn with opportunities to take part in organised events and activities, and is a distraction from anti-social behaviour.

The High Sheriff said: "Crimebeat is delighted to be able to support Cynllun Ieuentid Pwllheli's valuable work with local young people."

"CIP is a marvellous example of a well-managed scheme that provides a focus for the young people of Pwllheli and surrounding areas, offering support and advice about contemporary issues that affect our young people."

Cllr Michael Sol Owen, who is the chairman of CIP, says the project is extremely grateful for the donation. He said: "We are very grateful to the high sheriff for the donation of £1,000 towards helping to keep this valuable service for young people open."

"Due to cutbacks we have lost a number of grant funders, so donations of this nature are an important source of support."

The High Sheriff also paid a visit to the Eglwys Noddfa Playscheme in Caernarfon who received a grant of £500, and was delighted to hear that Crimebeat funding had allowed the playscheme to open for an extended period over the school holiday period.

On her visit the High Sheriff saw 50 young people taking part in structured activities led by volunteers from Eglwys Noddfa, and heard how the young people were queuing up to get in to the playscheme when it opened at 9.00am. The playscheme provides a wide range of activities from arts and crafts, drama and games.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are required to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing these financial statements they are required to follow best practice and:-

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the charity and which enable them to ascertain the financial position of the charity and which enable them to comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations and the provisions of the Trust Deed. The trustees are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes to the Accounts

1. Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies are summarised below. The accounting policies have been applied consistently throughout the year and in the preceding year.

a) Basis of Accounting

The accounts are drawn up on an accruals basis and in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in March 2005.

b) Fund Accounting

- Unrestricted Funds are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.
- Restricted Funds are subject to restrictions on their expenditure imposed by the donor.

c) Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

- Voluntary income is received by way of grants, donations and gifts and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable. Grants, where entitlement is not conditional on the delivery of a specific performance by the charity, are recognised when the charity becomes unconditionally entitled to the grant.

- Donated services and facilities are included at the value to the charity where this can be quantified.
- Investment income is included when receivable.
- Incoming resources from grants, where related to performance and specific deliverables, are accounted for as the charity earns the right to consideration by its performance.

d) Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes any VAT which cannot be fully recovered, and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates:

- Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

- Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include the independent examination fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the charity.
- All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the SoFA on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly, others are apportioned on an appropriate basis e.g. floor area.

2. Employees Remuneration

No employees were paid by the trust during the period. The services of a Project Manager/ Crimebeat Co-ordinator were donated by North Wales Police. This cost is included in the statement of financial activities.

3. Trustees Remuneration and Expenses

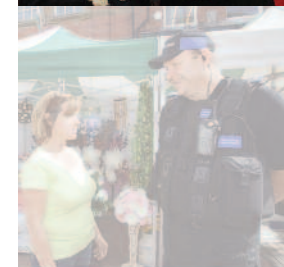

None of the Trustees, nor any connected persons, received any remuneration during the period.

No reimbursement of Trustees expenses, or any other connected persons, was made during the period.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of North Wales Police and Community Trust Charity

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2014 set out on pages 14 to 21.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statements

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and

- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act
- have not been met;
- or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
