

Op Bang Challenge

With Halloween and Bonfire night fast approaching, North Wales Police and PACT are once again working together to ensure your celebrations are safe and enjoyable for everyone.

This time of the year is traditionally busy for all emergency services across Wales, with a small minority of people using Halloween and Bonfire Night to commit Anti-Social Behaviour, placing themselves and others at risk of injury.

Halloween and Bonfire Night can be a distressing and intimidating time for the vulnerable and older members of our community so please be mindful of other people whilst carrying out your celebrations.

We bring to you...

Op Bang Challenge!!

We are encouraging youth groups across North Wales to take part in our Op Bang Challenge, this is a great way for groups / clubs / schools to help out in their own community, raise awareness of local or national issues, educate others around dangers of particular activities or just really make a difference to the lives of local people.

Register your group now!

Competition runs between 13th October - 10th November.

If you stuck for ideas, don't worry, our partners have provided some suggestions below.

North Wales Police

Raise awareness of:

- Have a look around in your community and see how you could make people feel safer in the darker evenings.
- Create a project that looks at Anti-Social Behaviour and how it affects our communities.
- Devise a way to make a difference to the environment in your community.

PACT

Ideas you could use:

- Devise a project that helps older people feel safe over the Halloween and Bonfire period.
- Create a short video in your school or youth club that promotes staying safe at Halloween and Bonfire time.
- Create a project that improves your local green spaces.
- A campaign to promote road safety for young people walking to and from school during the winter.

But ultimately, the decision is yours!
